

Terms of Use

Effective: Oct 2024, Version 1.0

Welcome to the Takeda website where you can access the vedolizumab clinical decision support tool in Crohn's disease calculator (the "Website"), which is intended for use by Healthcare Professionals ("HCP's") only. The information provided on this Website is about the vedolizumab clinical decision support tool in Crohn's disease calculator ("CDST"), a calculator that has been developed to identify patients with Crohn Disease ("CD") who will have a potential probability to respond positively to 26 weeks of vedolizumab therapy. Please read and review these Terms of Use (as defined below) carefully before accessing and using this Website and the CDST. Your access or use of this Website and the CDST indicates your acceptance of these Terms of Use, and your representation that you are a healthcare professional.

The Website and the CDST processes your personal data. We collect certain personal data about your use of this Website and/or the CDST, including country, IP address, language, time of assessment, non-personal input data and output data. For more information on Takeda's privacy practices please go to www.Takeda.com/privacy-notice/ or contact us at privacyoffice@takeda.com.

The Website and the CDST are made available to you by Takeda Pharmaceuticals (Hong Kong) Limited, an affiliate of Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Limited, who acts as the operator of the Website (hereinafter referred to collectively as "Takeda"). The Website and CDST are destined exclusively for HCPs and are not intended for patients or for the public at large. You are responsible for ensuring that third parties do not have access thereto.

1. Terms of Use

Your access to and use of this Website is subject to the herein defined terms and conditions and all applicable laws ("Terms of Use"). By using any of the contents of this Website, including but not limited to, all text and images (the "Content"), you hereby acknowledge that you have read, understood and agreed, without limitation or qualification, to these Terms of Use and acknowledge that any other agreements between you and Takeda are superseded with respect to this subject matter.

2. Use of the CDST and the Website

This Website and CDST may contain general information relating to various medical conditions and their treatment and do not constitute a patient-client relationship. All information presented on this Website is solely intended for informational and educational purposes and addressed to HCPs only.

CDST is NOT a medical device, but rather an information tool that is intended to support physicians in their clinical practice when engaging with patients being under their care.

CDST is not intended as a substitute for medical advice or for recommendations from HCPs with regards to therapeutic dosing, diagnosis, treatment monitoring or general medical treatment needs – and may not be treated as such by the users. If you are a healthcare professional, you understand and accept that CDST output is solely indicative in nature and not to be relied on as the basis for making any decision or taking any actions. CDST assists HCPs on certain aspects but not limited to patient dosage and durable remission, and no warranties are provided as to the accuracy of the results provided by CDST. You remain responsible for conducting additional actions and assessments as required under your legal responsibility, at your sole discretion, to ensure best treatment services for the patient who remains under your personal care. You acknowledge and confirm that you will not be provided with any advantages, benefits or preferential treatment as a result of using this Website and/or the CDST.

CDST does not intend to replace any medical advice or instructions by HCPs and is not intended for patients or for the public at large. If you are a patient and have, or suspect having, any health problems, you should consult your general practitioner or other qualified healthcare providers.

Nothing contained herein should be considered a solicitation, promotion or indication or suggestion for any prescription drug.
